

Please do not pass the law allow cell phone usage onboard the aircraft. It is annoying enough to try and get passengers to comply to your rules, how much more annoying it will be to hear them talk during the whole flight to other about nothing. Also, wouldn't that just be a better way to allow terrorists to find another strategy to use against us.

Your Fellow Flight Attendant